

Author Copyright Agreement

License to Publish

In order to publish your article we need your agreement.

By submitting your article to our journal, you and all co-authors of your submission agree to the terms of this license. You need to fill out a COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AGREEMENT for confirmation so that to provide us (the publisher) the exclusive right to both reproduce and/or distribute your article (including the abstract) throughout in electronic, printed or any other medium.

By submitting your article for publication to our journal, you promise that the article is your original work, has not been previously published, and is not currently under consideration by another publication. You also promise that the article does not, to the best of your knowledge, contain anything that is libellous, illegal or infringes anyone's copyright or other rights. If the article contains material that is someone else's copyright, you promise that you have obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to use the material and that the material is clearly identified and acknowledged in the text.

We promise that we will respect your rights as the author(s). That is, we will make sure that your name(s) is/are always clearly associated with the article and, while you do allow us to make necessary editorial changes, we will not make any substantial alterations to your article without consulting you.

By submission of a manuscript the corresponding author confirms that all co-authors have seen and approved the validity of the contents and approve the manuscript's submission. On behalf of all co-authors, the corresponding author shall take complete responsibility for the submission and its correspondence and the Publisher cannot be held responsible for any incomplete or incorrect manuscript submitted by the corresponding author(s). No authors will be added or removed post submission, unless the journal editor and all co-authors are informed and are in agreement to this change.

You retain the right to reuse or share your own article in the following ways:

- by posting a version of it on your personal, your institute's, university's, company's or funding agency's website as long as you give acknowledgement to the version as published in the journal by inserting the DOI number.
- by reproducing the article for use in courses the author is teaching. If the author is employed by an academic institution, that institution may also reproduce the article for course teaching.
- By distributing photocopies of the article to colleagues, but only for non-commercial purposes.

- by using the article, in whole or in part, for oral presentations
- by using the article in theses and/or dissertations
- by reusing figures and tables created by the author in future works
